WORLD OSTOMY DAY

1st October 2022

On October 1st, 2022, nurses and ostomates around the world will be marking World Ostomy Day, which is a celebration of people living with a stoma and a chance to raise awareness.

We have created a memorable campaign to help you mark the day!

We're here to help you spread the word about stoma care and educate both ostomates and healthcare professionals on healthy stoma skin, an important part of stoma care.

MISSION: Relentless pursuit of healthy stoma skin
OPERATION: To become Skincredible
MISSION DATE: 1st October 2022

PACK: You'll find everything you need to successfully complete this mission in the Skincredibles Activity Pack. Your pack includes a Skincredible cape, awareness materials and other goodies to help you and your team create a memorable event or a support group – either on the day or throughout the week.
